NIHIL SINE LABORE

1.   Rationale

   a.   This policy aims to ensure consistency in approach to remote learning for pupils who are not in school due to school a school closure.
   b.   Set expectations for all members of the school community in regards to remote learning
   c.   Provide appropriate guidelines for data protection.

2. Use of remote learning

All pupils should attend school, in line with our attendance policy. Remote education is not viewed as an equal alternative to attendance in school.

We will consider providing remote education to pupils in circumstances when in-person attendance is either not possible or contrary to government guidance.

This might include:

Occasions when we decide that opening our school is either:
   o   Not possible to do safely

   o   Contradictory to guidance from local or central government

Occasions when individual pupils, for a limited duration, are unable to physically attend school but are able to continue learning, for example because:

   o   They have an infectious illness

   o   They are preparing for or recovering from some types of operation

   o   They are recovering from injury and attendance in school may inhibit such recovery

   o   Their attendance has been affected by a special educational need or disability (SEND) or a mental health issue

The school will consider providing pupils with remote education on a case-by-case basis.

In the limited circumstances when remote learning is used, we will:

Gain mutual agreement of remote education by the school, parents/carers, pupils, and if appropriate, a relevant medical professional. If the pupil has an education, health and care (EHC) plan or social worker, the local authority (LA) will also be involved in the decision

Put formal arrangements in place to regularly review it and identify how to reintegrate the pupil back into school

Identify what other support and flexibilities can be put in place to help reintegrate the pupil back into school at the earliest opportunity

Set a time limit with an aim that the pupil returns to in-person education with appropriate support

Remote education will not be used as a justification for sending pupils home due to misbehaviour. This would count as a suspension, even if the pupil is asked to access online education while suspended.

2.   Roles & Responsibilities

    a.   Teachers
        i.   When providing remote learning, teachers must be available to respond to questions from students.
        ii.   If they're unable to work for any reason during this time, for example due to sickness or caring for a dependent, they should report this using the normal absence procedure (as detailed in the staff handbook/absence policy)

When providing remote learning, teachers should:
        i.   Provide pupils with access to remote education as soon as reasonably practicable, though in proportion to the length of absence and disruption to the learning of all learners
        ii.   Make reasonable adjustments for pupils with SEND to access remote education, where required, informed by relevant considerations including the support families will require and the types of services that pupils can access remotely

When providing remote learning teachers are responsible for:
        iii.   Setting Work
            –   Creating Teams meetings, to coincide with the time of the lesson that a student will not be able to attend in person.
            –   Plan appropriately challenging and ambitious work which reflects the content of the lesson that will be delivered in class.
            –   Deliver input (either live or recorded) to guide students in the completion/support of this work.
            –   Build in appropriate independent learning/completion time.
            –   Be available to respond to questions via Bromcom/Teams during the set lesson time.
            –   When delivering remote learning from school, teachers will not be expected to record lessons.
        iv.   Checking the completion of work.
            –   Teachers will check the submission of work on Bromcom, students who do not submit work will be referred to the Pastoral Team so any concerns can be tracked.
        v.   Raising concerns about student engagement –   Teachers will liaise with the Pastoral Team to ensure that students who fail to engage can be contacted and support put in place if/when necessary.

    It is not the teacher's responsibility to send hard copies, workbooks or work home should the school be required to move to remote learning.

    b.   Learning Support Assistants
        i.   LSAs will as guided by the SENDCo organise 1:1 or group support sessions for students who would normally be offered this.
        ii.   LSAs will share Teams Meetings links on Bromcom so students are able to join.
        iii.   When an LSA would meet 1:1 via Teams this will be recorded.

    c.   Heads of Department

Alongside their teaching responsibilities, Heads of department are responsible for:
        i.   Will ensure that the curriculum is appropriate for delivery via remote methods, or where possible source alternative high-quality resources to support students working from home.
        ii.   Considering whether any aspects of the subject curriculum need to change to accommodate remote learning
